

CLASSIFIED STAFF ORIENTATION

Superintendent and Supervisor are responsible for the orientation of new classified personnel so that they may clearly understand:

1. The responsibilities of the position to which they have been assigned.
2. The person or persons to whom they are directly responsible.
3. The objective of the department of which they are assigned.
4. How to get professional and technical assistance when needed.

CONTRACT REF.: Classified Staff Negotiated Agreement