

ARLINGTON LOCAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

ANNOUNCES AN OPENING FOR HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL (7-12)

ABOUT THE SCHOOL:

The Arlington Local School District encompasses an area of 56 square miles in southern Hancock County. The village of Arlington is located eight miles south of Findlay on S.R. 68 and the school is on Main Street in the village.

There are 560 students enrolled in the school district. The district has one elementary school (PK-6) and one high school (7-12) at the same site. The superintendent and treasurer offices are also located at this same site. A new addition to the facility was completed in 1992 which includes several elementary school classrooms, a gymnasium, and a remodeled auditorium.

The Arlington Local School District has a 1 ¾ % income tax for operating purposes. The assessed valuation of the district is $97,973,490 and the present effective millage rate for operating is 20 mills. The district has enjoyed a stable financial situation for the past fifteen years.

The District passed a levy in November 2022 (property and income combination) to build a new PK-12 school.
