Reports:

- A. Arlington Teacher's Representative(s)
 1. The Choral Music In Our Schools Month Concert was held Monday, March 7th 2022. All of the groups did well.
 2. The Concert Choir and the Women's Choir will perform at the OMEA District contest Friday Night, March 11th at Shawnee High School. The Concert Choir performs at 7:20pm and the Women's Choir performs at 8:20pm.
 3. The 4th, 5th and 6th graders are working hard on their production of Pirates! The Hidden Treasure. This will be presented Thursday, March 24th at 1:00pm and 7:00pm. Special thanks to Jill Alge, Annabelle Nigh, Emily Ernst, Kendra Tossey and Emma Rossman who are spending a lot of time behind scenes to create the sets, run the lights and work with the "Tap dancing Pirates"!!

4. 8 students that went to the NWO Leadership Conference- went well and all liked it.
5. OFT Conference- received a TON of books as part of the AFT literacy program- giving a book to every 1st and 2nd grader. Also, all other grade levels will receive a class set of books.
6. Jacob Orwick and Landon Smith are earning their State Degrees in May.
7. Right to Read Week in the Elementary has gone well!
8. Numbers for the off season weight room program are large! It includes the current year's 6th graders.
 - * Shane has started a "basic" training program for boys in 6th grade.
 - * Lifting times for athletes are from 6:15-7:30am and from 3:20-4:45pm every Monday, Wednesday and Friday.
 - * He is forced to offer different times because the size of our weight room is not close to sufficient to the number of athletes coming.
 - * He also has to stagger lifts in the afternoon because of the large turnout of 6th grade students and high school athletes.
 - * He is working with our in-season sports to get more student athlete involvement which currently includes baseball, track (boys and girls) as well as softball.
 - * He is working with our volleyball and girls basketball coaches to begin off-season workouts with our female student athletes. This is still under construction.
 - * The salad bar is back!!!
 - * The Junior Class Play was a huge success. It was very well received by the audience both Friday and Saturday night, and the students did a great job!
