

ARLINGTON JUNIOR HIGH & HIGH SCHOOL

OCTOBER 22ND UPDATE

VERROCO'S VOICE

Hello Parents and Guardians,

The leaves are turning, cold temperatures are upon us, Winter sports will be beginning soon, and our first quarter is coming to an end on October 31st. What do all of these changes mean? It's simple. It is very important to embrace change. Discuss with your student that changes are important to move forward each day. Focus on the positive with each change that is occurring during the day, week, month, or even long term. This requires a lot of discussions around the dinner table, over the weekend, on our way to school, or when positive discussions can take place throughout the week.

In other news, Parent-Teacher Conferences will be offered November 13th (8:00 a.m. -4:00 p.m.), Tuesday, October 18th, (3:30 p.m.-7:00 p.m.), and Thursday, November 20th, (3:30-7:00). Our middle school teachers will invite parents to our conference dates. High school teachers look forward to parents scheduling a meeting with them by following the instructions provided below.

Thank you for checking our website daily to view school events. So many great things are happening and we would like all of you to stay involved and support our students. Enjoy Halloween and hope to see many of you at PT Conferences!
