

ROBERT L. RHOAD SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Robert Rhoad was born in Findlay, Ohio educated in the Findlay Public Schools, and died in Findlay on September 22, 1989. During his professional life, Robert had as one of his goals the desire to establish a scholarship trust fund to assist individuals in their quest for higher education. To finance a scholarship fund, Robert Rhoad through many years of sacrifice, acquired numerous commercial properties around the Findlay area. It is the rental revenues from these real estate holdings that now make possible the granting of scholarships in his memory. The Trust established by Mr. Rhoad provides that "the income of the Trust, after the payment of annual expenses, shall be distributed annually by the Trustees for scholarships at institutions of higher learning to deserving students, residents of Hancock County, Ohio to be selected in the manner determined by the Trustees to be fair."
