

Todd Garlock

Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was established in the memory of Todd Garlock who passed away on August 4, 2018 from NK Cell Leukemia. Todd started Todd's Painting Service in 1980 with one paint brush and one ladder and then along with his brother Mike founded Garlock Brothers Construction in 1984, where he was currently the President and Treasurer of the company. He used his love for construction to help people in need through the Habitat for Humanity. Todd also used his talents to help mentor young entrepreneurs get the experience necessary to start their own company. He was also very active with the construction program at Millstream to help youth become interested in the construction industry, some of whom are still employed at Garlock Brothers Construction. In 1996, Todd was inducted into the Small Business Hall of Fame. He was a member of the Hancock Chamber of Commerce and the Hancock County Home Builders Association. Todd worked closely with the Hancock County Regional Planning and Economic Development and City of Findlay Planning Commission. In 2000 and 2016, Todd along with his brother Mike and all of the owners and employees of Garlock Brothers Construction, were honored to receive the Small Business of the Year Award. This scholarship is intended to assist a student with a strong desire to continue his or her education in a construction related field.
